Star Thoroughbreds' Invincible Princess

"All credit to Sledmere Stud for presenting a quality filly at the yearling sale, resulting in a very high-class mare on the racetrack,"
Star Thoroughbreds' Denise Martin

Purchased from the draft of Sledmere Stud at the 2015 Magic Millions yearling sale for $185,000 by Star Thoroughbreds, the I Am Invincible x Abscond filly would go on to be named Invincibella.

Part of the formidable Chris Waller Racing Stable, Invincibella made her debut in January of her juvenile year, finishing fifth after being well supported due to a prior barrier trial victory.

Given a let up, the filly next stepped out on race day in May where she recorded three consecutive second placed efforts, culminating in a stakes placing, finishing a half-length second in the Listed Lancaster Stakes during the Brisbane winter carnival.

Resuming in September, the now three-year-old filly broke her maiden at Canterbury, before second at Listed level at her next start followed by another win two starts later.

Sent to Melbourne for the Spring carnival, the filly recorded a third in the Listed Hybrid Stakes, with second being eventual Group 1 winner Prompt Response, before another third performance saw her six-start campaign end.

Targeted towards the Group 1 Queensland Oaks when next in work, Invincibella's campaign was solid without breaking through for a win, finishing just over two lengths behind the winners in both the Group 2 The Roses and the Group 1 Queensland Oaks, highlighting that the filly didn't not stay.

Resuming in the September of her four-year-old season, the mare defeated Osborne Bulls first-up before defeating Lubition, before finishing third behind that same mare at Group 3 level in Melbourne.

After the Spring, the mare made an appearance in December in Queensland, finishing a solid fourth at Listed level, before capturing her biggest prizemoney cheque, winning the Fillies And Mares Handicap on the Magic Millions race day at the Gold Coast Turf Club.

During her next campaign, the mare never finished further back than fifth in her five starts, headlined by the Group 2 Dane Ripper Stakes where she defeated Prompt Response before finishing a narrow fifth behind that same mare in the Group 1 Tatt's Tiara.

It was at her next campaign as a five-year-old where Invincibella really flourished, capturing the Group 2 Sheraco Stakes and the Group 2 Blazer Stakes in the space of three runs.

Syndicator and purchaser Denis Martin could not be happier with the recent performances of her mare.

"Invincibella enjoyed a stellar year in 2018 with her $1 million Magic Millions Fillies and Mares last stride victory at the beginning of the year, followed by Group 2 victories in three states as she won the Dane Ripper at Doomben, the Sheraco at Rosehill and wrapped up the year winning the Blazer at Flemington."

"All credit to Sledmere Stud for presenting a quality filly at the yearling sale, resulting in a very high-class mare on the racetrack."

Having barrier trial recently at Randwick where she finished third behind multiple Group 1 winner Alizee, Invincibella could head to the 2019 Magic Millions race day at the Gold Coast.

Nowyousee Him, Nowyoudont...

With six wins and four placed efforts from 11 starts, four-year-old Nowyousee (pictured left and below) is one of Singapore most consistent runners.

Purchased for $100,000 from Sledmere Stud's 2016 Magic Millions draft, the Waikato Stud-bred son of O'Reilly was an instant hit in Singapore, winning by over three lengths on debut before backing that up and capturing two of his next three starts.

Owned by the Titanium Racing Stable, the speedster has only had one blot to his copy book, when being tried over 1200m, with the gelding immediately sent back to his preferred trip over 1000m – 1100m.

Originally trained by Ricardo Le Grange before heading to the stable of Lee Freedman, it appears as if Nowyousee will make his 2019 debut for the James Peters stable, having been transferred once again.

Another runner currently in Singapore from the very same draft is Snitzel's son Augustus (pictured right).

Originally sold to the China Horse Club, the half-brother to Group 1 Australian Derby winner Roman Emperor showed staying ability from day one.

Winning twice for the Chris Waller Stable, the connections of Augusts made the decision to sell their two-time winner.

Changing ownership during the Winter of his three-year-old season, his new ownership group Te Akau Racing recorded immediate success, with Augustus winning at Canterbury before a gallant fourth in the Group 1 Queensland Derby.

Sent to Singapore to be aimed at the Group 1 Singapore Derby (1800m), a race open to four-year-olds, the Mark Walker-trained runner was successful in a barrier trial before starting over an unsuitable trip, which will see the gelding fitter for the experience.

Run in July, the Singapore Derby is the third leg of the Singapore Four-Year-Old Series which kicks off with the 1400m Group 2 Stewards' Cup before the Group 1 Charity Bowl over 1600m, giving each runner the ideal platform to step up in trip to the 1800m of the Derby distance.

Lot 341: Brown Filly

Smart Missile x Aloona

By Fastnet Rock's Group 2-winning son Smart Missile, who was represented by his first Group 1 winner this season through the deeds of the Arrowfield Stud-raced Maid Of Heaven who defeated the colts/geldings in the Spring Champion Stakes, Lot 341 is the second foal of the French-winning, American bred Smart Strike mare Aloona (USA), a half-sister to stakes winner Galatee, who is in turn the dam of stakes winners Dartmouth, Manatee and Gaterie.

From an impressive international Group 1 family, Aloona's first foal is the Group 2 Todman Stakes winner Aylmerton, the lone stakes winner for his sire Siyouni in Australia.

Smart Strike as a broodmare sire has produced over 200 stakes performers, eight at Group 1 level, while the exact same Danehill x Smart Strike pedigree cross has produced 15 winners from 17 runners, with 90% winners to runners for fillies.

Juvenile Success Could Lead To 3YO Magic!

Teaming up after their success with Group 1 Golden Slipper winner She Will Reign, Darby Racing and trainer Gary Portelli appear to have another smart one on their hands in the shape of Dio d'Oro.

Costing the Group 1 syndicator and agent De Burgh Equine $210,000 from the draft of Sledmere Stud at the 2017 Magic Millions yearling sale, the colt (pictured right) by Darley's Medaglia d'Oro made his debut in January of his juvenile year, finishing second to the Hawkes Racing Team's smart filly Estijaab, who was also making her debut.

No one would know at that stage, but just three starts later the Emirates Park-owned filly would claim the Group 1 Golden Slipper.

Dio d'Oro would go on to show at his second and third starts where he finished fourth in the Group 3 Canonbury Stakes and third over 1200m on his home track of Warwick Farm, that he was just not sharp enough for the Slipper.

Sent for a spell, the colt continued to furnish and improve on the impressive looking yearling he was.

Back to the races in June, the colt would go on to record three consecutive race victories before a short break, where the colt then ran into some handy three-year-olds in Graff in the Group 3 San Domenico and then Tarka in the Group 2 Stan Fox Stakes.

Having resumed recently with a solid effort over 1100m at Randwick, Dio d'Oro is current sitting in 13th on the prizemoney order of entry for the 2019 $2 million Magic Millions 3YO Guineas and a possible trip to the Gold Coast Turf Club is hopefully on the cards for January 12.

Sledmere Stud will offer Lot 106 (below left), a three-quarter-brother to Dio d'Oro on the first day of the 2019 sale. By Coolmore Australia's Group 1 Golden Slipper winner Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro), the colt is one of 17 yearlings in Sledmere Stud's impressive draft.

The dam of four winners from five foals to race, Dio d'Oro's Exceed And Excel dam Seeking Attention has already produced the South African Listed winner Buckinghamshire as well as the Group 3 placed Cautious.

Exceed And Excel as a broodmare sire has produced 53 stakes performers including Group 1 winners Alizee, Bounding and Prompt Response, while the similar Medaglia d'Oro x Exceed And Excel pedigree cross has produced eight winners from 10 runners led by Group 1 winner Astern.

Te Akau's Got The Fever, Gold Fever!

Te Akau Racing's David Ellis needed $110,000 to purchase Sledmere Stud's Lot 266 at the 2016 Magic Millions Yearling Sale, the Savabeel x Gold Rocks filly.

Offered for sale on behalf of her part-breeder Waikato Stud, Gold Fever as she was to be named, headed back to New Zealand after her purchase to join the powerful Te Akau Racing stable.

Making her debut in November off the back of two trial performance, Gold Rock demolished her rivals in the Wentwood Grange 2YO Stakes to score by three and a half lengths for her connections.

Beaten into third at her next two starts, by less than a length on both occasions, her performance behind future Group 1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas winner Hasahalo in the Group 3 Eclipse Stakes highlighted that the filly was up to black type class.

A winner at her next start, Gold Fever then stepped up to the Group 2 Matamata Breeders' Stakes over 1200m and once again defeated Joyfilly, the filly she had defeated the start prior.

Gold Fever's victory in the time-honoured Group 2 contest gave her dam Gold Rocks, the Group 2 Karrakatta Plate winner, back to back winners of the race with her So You Think sired daughter Gold Rush winning 12 months prior.

The Group 1 Sistema Stakes was next on the agenda for Gold Fever, and in what was an outstanding performance, the filly was the first of her sex home, finishing third after being severely interfered with early in the running causing her to lose many lengths in the run.

Barrier trialling on a few occasions at the commencement of her next campaign, the filly did not make it back to the races and was ultimately retired to stud.

Covered by Waikato Stud's multiple Group 1 winner Sacred Falls in her first season at stud, the Sledmere Stud sold Gold Fever is now on the next phase of her career.
